For each week you requested payment, this screen shows the weekly benefit amount, any deductions, distributions, the net payment, the payment method, and the payment status. To understand the difference between the weekly benefit amount and the net payment for each week, click on 'Deductions' and 'Other Distributions' (see next screens).

This is the screen shown when a deduction amount is selected. This detail screen shows the deduction made for that week and the type of deduction. In this example, the deduction was due to earnings.

This is the screen shown when an 'other distribution' amount was selected. This detail screen shows the 'other distribution' for that week and the type of distribution. In this example, the 'other distribution' was due to federal income tax withholding.

Screen #5

The screenshot shows a web browser window titled "State Application - (MN - DEED)". The address bar displays a URL from the Minnesota Department of Labor and Industry. The page header includes the Minnesota Unemployment Insurance logo and the date "Thursday, December 6, 2007".

The main content area is titled "Applicant Self-Service" and includes a "Log Off" link. A sidebar on the left lists various account management options. The main content area is divided into three sections:

- Applicant Information: Includes fields for Applicant Name, Applicant ID, Account ID, Effective Date (10/14/2007), and Account Status (Active). Links for "Change Account", "Change Applicant", and "Leave Applicant" are provided.
- Payment Information: Includes fields for Week Requested Begin Date (10/28/2007) and Payment ID (57881072).
- Other Distributions Information: Displays "Federal Tax Withholding: $53.00" and "TOTAL OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS: $53.00". A "Previous" button is located below this section.

The sidebar on the left contains the following links:
